

Guide for Preparation in Celebrating the Sacrament of Reconciliation

What are mortal sins?

Mortal sins are serious offenses that, according to Catholic doctrine, break our relationship with God and deprive us of sanctifying grace. For a sin to be considered mortal, three conditions must be met:

1. Grave matter (the act must be objectively serious).
2. Full knowledge (the person must know that what they are doing is a grave sin).
3. Deliberate consent (the person must do it freely and with full awareness).

In Christian theology, a mortal sin is a gravely sinful act which can lead to damnation if a person does not repent of the sin before death. It is alternatively called deadly, grave, and serious; the concept of mortal sin is found in both Catholicism and Lutheranism. A sin is considered to be 'mortal' when its quality is such that it leads to a separation of the person from God's saving grace.

Here is a list of some common mortal sins:

1. Blasphemy: Insulting or showing contempt for the name of God, the Virgin Mary, or the saints.
2. Missing Sunday Mass and holy days of obligation without a justified reason: It is a grave sin not to attend Mass knowing that it is an obligation for Catholics.
3. Homicide: Killing another human being, whether directly or indirectly.
4. Abortion: Deliberately ending the life of an unborn human being.
5. Suicide: Intentionally taking one's own life.
6. Adultery: Having sexual relations with someone who is not your spouse.
7. Fornication: Having sexual relations outside of marriage.
8. Pornography: Consuming or participating in the creation of pornographic material.
9. Masturbation: Performing a solitary sexual act for the purpose of obtaining pleasure outside of the marital context.
10. Theft: Taking something that belongs to another person, especially if it is something of great value.
11. Lying under oath (perjury): Deliberately lying when a promise has been made before God or under oath.
12. Slander or defamation: Deliberately lying to harm another person's reputation.
13. Failure to help those in need: Refusing to help when someone is in extreme need and you have the means to do so.
14. Deliberate injustice against one's neighbor: Acting maliciously or deliberately harming others (e.g., exploiting workers, committing fraud, etc.).
15. Deliberate hatred or resentment: Refusing to forgive someone or harboring deep and lasting hatred against someone.
16. Participating in occult practices or witchcraft: Includes black magic, spiritualism, sorcery, Ouija boards, invocation of evil spirits, etc.
17. Destructive envy: Seriously wishing harm upon someone out of jealousy or envy.
18. Drunkenness and drug use: The excessive use of alcohol or drugs that leads to a loss of control of one's mental faculties.
19. Lust: Deliberately seeking sexual pleasure for its own sake, outside of a marital and loving relationship.
20. Artificial contraception: The use of artificial methods to prevent conception within marriage.
21. Homosexual relations: According to traditional teaching, homosexual acts (not the inclination or tendency) are considered grave sins.
22. Profaning the sacraments: Receiving the sacraments, especially the Eucharist, in a state of mortal sin or without due respect.

What are venial sins?

Venial sins are those faults that, although they do not break our relationship with God, weaken our spiritual life and distance us from His grace. Unlike mortal sins, which destroy charity in the heart of man, venial sins do not deprive us of divine life, but they do prevent us from growing in virtue and holiness. These sins are less serious, but no less important, since they can lead us to commit more serious offenses if we do not correct them in time. The main difference between venial and mortal sins lies in their gravity and the consequences they have for our soul. While mortal sins destroy sanctifying grace and require sacramental confession to be forgiven, venial sins can be forgiven through prayer, repentance, and receiving the Eucharist.

What are the 10 most common venial sins?

Venial sins can manifest themselves in various ways in our daily lives. Below is a list of the 10 most frequent venial sins and how you can avoid them:

1. Gossip: Speaking ill of others, whether by criticizing their actions or spreading rumors, is a venial sin that harms charity and unity among people. To avoid it, it is important to practice fraternal charity and always seek the good of others.
2. Impatience: Losing your temper in frustrating situations or expecting immediate results can lead us to commit acts of impatience. Cultivating the virtue of patience and trusting in God's plan are key to overcoming this sin.
3. White lies: Telling small lies to avoid conflict or make someone feel good may seem harmless, but it is a venial sin that goes against the truth. It is fundamental to live in truth and be honest at all times.
4. Spiritual laziness: Neglecting prayer, spiritual reading, or attending Mass are manifestations of spiritual laziness. To combat it, it is necessary to cultivate a life of prayer and seek God's presence in our daily lives.
5. Envy: Feeling jealous of the achievements or possessions of others is a venial sin that distances us from charity. Learning to rejoice in the good fortune of others and being grateful for what we have are attitudes that help us overcome envy.
6. Selfishness: Thinking only of our own interests and neglecting the needs of others is a venial sin that goes against the commandment of love. Practicing generosity and service helps us overcome selfishness.
7. Lack of charity: Not being kind, not helping our neighbor, or not being forgiving are attitudes that reflect a lack of charity. It is important to love as Christ loves us and always seek the good of others.
8. Vanity: Seeking the admiration of others or boasting about our qualities is a venial sin that distances us from humility. Practicing humility and recognizing that all good things come from God helps us combat vanity.
9. Gluttony: Eating or drinking excessively, even without becoming ill, is a venial sin that goes against temperance. It is important to moderate our appetites and use God's gifts responsibly.
10. Distraction during prayer: Allowing our minds to wander during prayer or not paying attention during moments of encounter with God is a venial sin that weakens our relationship with Him. It is essential to be present in prayer and seek intimacy with God.

Celebrating the Sacrament of Reconciliation

- ☐ Go into the confessional and begin, In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen. Forgive me, father, for I have sinned. It has been (how long?) since my last confession and these are my sins... (confess your sins, when you are done remember to say that you have complete the confession)
- ☐ The Celebrant will give you a penance and then ask you to pray for the Act of Contrition.
- ☐ ACT OF CONTRITION
 - My God, I am sorry for my sins with all my heart. In choosing to do wrong and failing to do good, I have sinned against you whom I should love above all things. I firmly intend, with your help, to do penance, to sin no more, and to avoid whatever leads me to sin. Our Savior Jesus Christ suffered and died for us. In his name, my God, have mercy. Amen.
 - My God, I am heartily sorry for having offended You, and I detest all my sins because of Your just punishments, but most of all because they offend You, my God, who are all-good and deserving of all my love. I firmly resolve, with the help of Your grace, to sin no more and to avoid the near occasion of sin. Amen.
- ☐ The celebrant will then say the prayer of forgiveness (absolution). Leave and do your penance.
